Willows Weeping

by Danielle Fisher

Nota bene --

Willow Trees

mean many things to many people

For some,

It's a place where you talk to those you can't see or touch anymore.

It's where you seek shelter
under a storm.

They have to be moved by some outside force
for the next layer to be seen.

It's why you grow your hair so long.

You can lift one piece and discover a whole new being.

It was your mother's favorite.

If ever I were a tree,

I'd be a willow.

I sort of already am.
